

Keg de Souza is an Australian artist working with mediums such as; inflatable architecture, food, film, mapping and dialogical projects to explore the politics of space. This investigation of social and spatial environments is influenced by her formal training in architecture and experiences of radical spaces through squatting and organising. She often creates site and situation specific projects with people, with an emphasis on knowledge exchange. She has been self-publishing her own artist's books and zines for over 15 years and is represented by Booklyn Artist Alliance, NY.

Recent exhibitions include; the 5th Auckland Triennial, 15th Jakarta Biennale and Vertical Villages at 4A Centre for Contemporary Asian Art, Sydney (all 2013), Temporality in Architecture, Food and Communities, Delfina Foundation, London; Temporary Spaces, Edible Places, Atlas Arts, Isle of Skye, Scotland and If There's Something Strange In Your Neighbourhood... Ratmakan Kampung, Yogyakarta, Indonesia (all 2014), Temporary Spaces, Edible Places: Vancouver and Preservation; both Contemporary Art Gallery, Vancouver and Temporary Spaces, Edible Places: New York, AC Institute, New York (all 2015), 20th Biennale of Sydney – The future is already here – it's just not evenly distributed, the 2016 Setouchi Triennale and Appetite for Construction, Contemporary Art Gallery, Vancouver (all 2016).
